

Dr Michael Hyland Consultant Geriatrician

DR Michael Hyland graduated from UCC with a MB, BCh in 1958. He is currently chairman of the Clinical Research Ethics Committee of the Cork Teaching Hospitals and a leading authority on geriatric medicine nationally and internationally.

Since 1998, he has been a member of the PROSPER study executive committee of Investigators.

From 1969-1999, he was consultant physician in Geriatric Medicine at St Finbarr's Hospital and lecturer in Medicine at University College Cork.

He has also served as chairman of the Irish Society of Physicians in Geriatric Medicine and as a member of the National Council for the Aged (Ireland).

Dr Hyland is to be bestowed with a Degree of Doctor of Medicine and his encomium will be delivered by Professor Davis Coakley, Professor of Medical Gerontology at Trinity College Dublin.